

VINEYARD STATION

RANCH

2009 CARNEROS PINOT NOIR SAIGNÉE

The Saignée (to bleed in French) method is an essential part of many Pinot Noir programs. While the main goal is to enhance the richness and flavor of the traditional Pinot Noir, this practice also results in a beautiful Rose wine which is high in flavor and character although low in sweetness and tannins. It is perfect for summer sipping or enhancing a light meal. Enjoy this unique experience.